COMPANY MANAGEMENT

HOUSE RULES

Dear guests and daily visitors, by entering the resort you agree to abide by these house rules. VALALTA-NATURIST is a closed-type tourist resort intended primarily for families.

NATURISM

1. The Valalta tourist resort is intended exclusively for naturists.
a) Bathing, sunbathing, and staying on the beach/pools while dressed is prohibited.

b) For minors, there is a designated beach area where clothes are tolerated.

c) On their plot, guests decide on their own clothing. Entry without clothing is not allowed in the reception area, shops, and other indoor facilities that are specially marked. In other common areas, for hygienic reasons, the use of a towel is recommended.

d) Only individuals who possess a Valalta Loyalty Card are permitted entry into the resort.

PUBLIC PEACE AND ORDER

2. Quiet hours: daytime 13:00–15:00, nighttime 24:00–07:00. Valalta reserves the right, during special events, to shorten nighttime quiet hours.

3. VEHICLE TRAFFIC:

To ensure peace and the safety of all our guests, especially children, please minimize the use of vehicles inside the resort.
a) Drivers must maintain walking pace; the speed limit is 10 km/h, and traffic regulations must be observed.

b) Within the entire resort, only electric motorcycles, electric scooter motorcycles, electric bicycles and bicycles are permitted, as well as cars and motor vehicles that serve as the only means of transport with which the guest arrived at the resort.

c) The use of the following electric vehicles is prohibited: scooters, hoverboards, skateboards, unicycles, tricycles, and similar vehicles. Exceptions apply to persons with disabilities, subject to the approval of the Management.

d) Those in breach of the rules will be warned and fined.

4. Minors (under the age of 18) will only be accommodated if accompanied by parents, guardians, or legally authorized persons (proven by a written statement from the parents with valid ID at check-in). These persons are responsible for their behaviour and must ensure that their liveliness does not disturb the peace, rest, or safety of other guests. Children must be accompanied by adults when using sanitary facilities and supervised while swimming.

5. The Management reserves the right to deny hospitality to guests who disturb the peace or do not comply with the house rules.

VALUABLES AND MONEY

6. The Management is not responsible for damage to persons or belongings such as theft, damage, force majeure, injuries, mental distress, or other causes unless due to negligence of Valalta staff. Guests are requested to safeguard their property and take all protective measures. A safe for money and valuables is available at reception for a fee.

7. Guests are requested to hand over lost items to reception.

MAIL

8. Guests may collect notices and mail at reception.

DAILY VISITORS

9. All persons entering the resort during the day without overnight stay are considered daily visitors. Entry is allowed only on foot. For stays (touring the camp, visiting friends) up to 2 hours, visitors must leave a valid ID, which will be returned upon exit. For stays longer than 2 hours, an entry ticket is charged, valid until 22:00 on the day of entry. The Management reserves the right to limit visitor access if capacity is near full, to ensure maximum service to guests staying in the resort.

CHECK-IN AND CHECK-OUT

CAMP

10. Upon arrival at the camp, guests must present a valid ID/passport for each person at the reception gate for registration. For minors (under 18), an identification document valid in Croatia must be presented. A registration form will be issued. Please check the accuracy of the registration and the number of registered persons.

11. In the camp, guests choose a free pitch themselves. Camping equipment must be set up within the numbered and marked pitch. One pitch may accommodate:
- caravan + children's tent + 1 vehicle*
- tent + children's tent + 1 vehicle*
- camper + children's tent

A pitch can be occupied by a maximum of 6 people (adults and children included) at the same time. Each pitch has one power outlet. Electrical connections are intended only for low-power devices. Guests are responsible for electrical connections, devices, and cables. If leaving the camp for more than one day, the cable must be unplugged for safety reasons.
Only electric or gas grills are allowed on the pitch.
Pitch number must be entered in the registration form and reported at reception within 3 hours of entering the resort. Changing pitches is possible only by notifying the reception and presenting the registration form.

BUNGALOWS, APARTMENTS, MOBILE HOMES

12. Guests with a confirmed reservation of accommodation (bungalows, apartments, mobile homes) must adhere to the period of reservation. Accommodation is available from 13:00. Reception cannot guarantee, but will try to meet guest requests regarding the desired unit number. In case of late arrival or early departure, the guest must pay for the entire reserved period. Extending the stay must be arranged with reception. Guests must use the assigned parking space. Upon arrival, please check the unit's inventory against the inventory list and report deficiencies the same day. Authorized Valalta staff will perform regular checks. Any damage or loss will be charged at departure according to the price list. Repairs and replacements are performed exclusively by Valalta staff.
Barbecuing is not allowed in accommodation units.

MARINA

13. All motor boats must be registered at the Marina and at the reception (camp guests – reception/entry barrier; residential accommodation guests – main reception; arrival by sea – at Marina reception upon arrival). Documents of the vessel and valid ID/passport must be presented at registration, done on the day of arrival. For use of electricity and water, contact authorized Marina staff. The Valalta Marina is for naturist guests. Non-naturists may stay only overnight or in case of bad weather.

PAYMENT

14. In high season: 8–14h and 15–21h. Off-season: hours displayed at the main reception door. To avoid waiting, we recommend settling your bill the day before departure. Your registration form is required at payment. Payment accepted in cash, Maestro, Visa, or Mastercard. Between the day of payment and day of departure please present your paid invoice on entry and exit from the resort. Guests booking through agencies must have their services bill made up before departure.
